ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?
ALL CASES OF
DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING
ARE NOW CURABLE
by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.
HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.
F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the deaf ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
Very truly yours,
F. A. WERMAN, 729 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.
Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

HIS FATHER'S SON.

With furrowed face and toll-worn hands she sat within her decent room—
She heard the murmur of the breeze.
She heard the rustle of the curtains.
"My son, a leader in the state!"
She said, "What good thing have I done,
O God, who ruleth earth and sea,
That Thou dost bless me in my son?"
She closed her faded, happy eyes—
In fancy she was far away—
Away where Norway's mountains rise,
Where Norway's waters leap and play.
In her trail son she saw again
Her parting comrade all day long
Amid the noise of rippling grain,
Where rang the reaper's harvest song.
The reaper, ah! she could but grieve,
"He was my own good man," she said;
"It broke my heart his grave to leave
When the ship sailed with him and me."
Her task of years to pray, to plan,
To eke by toil their scanty board,
To make her boy a good man—
As the sleeper by the northland fjord.
Roused by the cannon's thunderous boom,
The pulsing music of the bands,
She met her son within her room
Lending to clasp her eager hands.
She thinks not of the burdened years
Her part in all that has been won.
But merrily, smiling through her tears,
She tells him of his father's home—
"Thank God!" he is his father's son!"
—Charlotte Whitcomb, in Minneapolis Housekeeper.

HER EXPERIMENT.

By Ernest McGehee.
(Copyright, 1901, by Authors Syndicate.)

SHE was a coed and had formed an unalterable resolve never to marry. For that was to sink from the concrete to the general, or, in other words, into nonentity, and she felt herself too valuable to be disposed of in that way. Her very name, Ethelinda Coddington Grayson, promised her something out of the common, and she had resolved from her earliest childhood to rise to that challenge, come what might. Everybody knew this, and knew also that she was looking for a career that would be worthy of her aspirations. But careers do not blossom every day, and Ethelinda had not yet found hers, though the last year of her university course was drawing to a close.

Of course she had not failed to put fate to the touch in various ventures before this time, but though these had mainly turned to ashes of sodium to the taste, her spirit was unbroken. No desperation was the motto embroiled on the glove which she threw down to fortune, and her conduct bore out the proud defiance.

Early in her teens she had joined a woman's club; to be a leader among women had fascinated her young imagination. She would reveal to the dowdier of her set the lofty ideals upon which she fashioned herself, and they would rise up and call her blessed.

Alas for the airy fabrics of fancy! It so transpired that women, with few exceptions, did not want careers, but insisted on marrying and making mere backgrounds of themselves, in spite of her glowing periods. And worst of all, they made fun of her. Only a stoic can stand being laughed at, and Ethelinda was not of that unpleasant variety.

Nothing daunted, however, she made the round of every hall and oblong table, and after careful consideration made her choice. That department of science known to professors as entomology, but in vulgar parlance alluded to as bugology, became her passion. Being a young person of surprising energy, whatever she undertook she did with all her might, and in a short time she was heard of ears in her new pursuit. Overcoming things which most people shun with loathing, she cultivated with enthusiasm. She made friends of the slimy denizens of pools and marshes, smiled on slugs and worms, and even took the furry caterpillar to her heart.

Admirable as this was from a scientific point of view it only added fury to the tempest raging in the breast of the professor of belles-lettres in the university. He had long worshipped at Ethelinda's shrine, and had always strongly disapproved of her mental vagaries, but this last one was too much for his patience, already sadly frayed. He resented with fierce disgust the new rivals that had come between him and his love. For though he had been told repeatedly and latterly in tones unmistakably acid that there was no hope, he still persisted in his pursuit, convinced that faint heart never won fair lady, and spending much precious time in devising ways and means for the subduing of obdurate hearts.

Ethelinda was the valedictorian of the graduating class of that year, and as such had the opportunity of her life presented to her. She dared an innovation and won. Departing from the platitudes made and provided for such occasions, she made no allusion to the alma mater from whose sheltering arms the class was about to take its plunge into the cold, raw world without, but instead gave her audience a little lecture on bugs, and joyously predicted the day when they would be served up, metaphorically speaking, morning, noon and night at every table in the land.

where with Miss Grayson, carried the implements with which she reaped her wiggly harvest, mounted specimens for her, though the soul within him revolted, and in a thousand ways made himself indispensable. "He is really quite useful," Ethelinda acknowledged to herself. "I don't know what I should do without him."
But there came a time, which, though Ethelinda was unconscious of it, was the crisis, the turning point of all her days. The river that ran by the town had the habit of overflowing its banks in the spring freshets, leaving behind in getting back into its channel long stretches of the loveliest of flats teeming with insect life, a very paradise for those devoted to that kind of game.

Ethelinda was in raptures over the prospect, and no sooner had the sun established a safe footing over the treacherous waste than she was daily to be seen in the little boat, propelled by the professor, hurrying to the desired fields.
This went on for a week, and everything was lovely. But one day in mid-stream the little boat sprung a leak. Ethelinda would not believe it until the water was half way to her nose tops. So faithful, so staunch, a craft to go back on her self! But there was nothing for her but to make land as quickly as possible, and from that point the shore seemed perilously far away. Ethelinda would have fallen flat in three feet of water, but the professor could, if need were, swim like a duck, and now there was urgent call for all his science.

By stuffing his soft hat into the rent at the bottom of the boat Ethelinda proffered hers; the river was held in abeyance, but this was clearly only a makeshift. Any moment their frail vehicle might fail them, and then what? Why, the swift current of the remorseless stream, which would snatch them away from life and light forever, and bury them fathoms deep in sand and unsightly debris.

Ethelinda thought of this for one dreadful, agonizing moment, then she became aware of the professor speaking, and she made a desperate effort to listen to what he was saying.

He was telling her in calm, even tones that there was no immediate danger, that even if the worst came to the worst he could swim with her to shore, provided she remained calm, and did exactly as he told her to do. White and rigid, she promised, though in her heart she saw very little hope.

The professor was, on the contrary, almost gay. He plied the oars vigorously, humming a lively tune, though the water in the boat continued to increase alarmingly. To Ethelinda it seemed an eternity before the solid drier current had been cleared and shallower space reached.

Fortunately as he told her to do, the boat filled, and they were up to their waists in the river. Ethelinda, forgetting her resolution, screamed and clung to the professor, but that gentleman, having had the presence of mind to seize an oar as he went overboard, steadied himself by it, begging Miss Grayson to trust to him, for he would save her if he himself perished in the attempt.

Fortunately at this point the river bottom was firm, some good genius had surely directed their course, and after the first shock Miss Grayson recovered her courage somewhat. There was danger, to be sure, but the serenity with which the professor faced it shamed her fears, and she let him put his left arm around her waist to support her, while with his right he assisted their struggling selves toward the shore. By merest chance Jack Melvin had taken a spin on the water that morning, and while the professor and Ethelinda were rescuing themselves from shipwreck was watching them from a clump of bushes on the banks. A four-oared boat was moored near by, though what he might want with four oars, going up stream, too, was not clear.

"Hello, professor," he shouted, "what are you and Miss Grayson doing out there? You'll get wet if you don't mind."
"Is that you, Jack?" shouted the professor in turn. "Fetch out your boat if you have one and help us out of this beastly fix. Upon my honor, we've had a close call."
Ten minutes later the four-oared boat had justified its presence and Ethelinda, seated in the stern, was wringing the water from her dress and skirts and warmly thanking Jack Melvin for his timely assistance.

"Don't mention it," said Jack, "the professor had already rescued you when I appeared on the scene."
"Yes," replied Miss Grayson, blushing crimson. "I owe my life to the professor, and I shall always be grateful to him for the favor."
At the wedding a month later Jack Melvin was best man, and after the ceremony he kissed the bride, shook hands with all the guests in defiance of etiquette and otherwise distinguished himself. And while congratulating was concentrated upon Miss Grayson that was, he held a short conference with the professor, in which he seemed to allude to certain dark and mysterious transactions known only to those two. These transactions must have been of a peculiar nature, for neither Jack nor the professor smiled, though their eyes danced, and the warm hand clasp of both in good-by, and the professor's hearty "God bless you, my boy," gave no clue to their meaning.

Don't Live Together.

Constipation and health never go together. DeWitt's Little Risers promote easy action of the bowels without distress. "I have been troubled with constiveness 9 years," says J. O. Greene, Depauw, Ind. "I have tried many remedies but Little Early Risers give best results."

This Explains Itself.

The following communication, which is self-explanatory should, and would have been published in last week's paper but for the fact that it was mislaid. However, as we are always glad to make the amend honorable when in error, through misinformation or otherwise, we now take pleasure in setting Bro. Greening right before the people, and assure him that our article was the result of misinformation, though without malice aforethought, we verily believe, upon the part of our informant. But hear Bro. Greening:

"Mr. Cooper—Kind Sir: The within letter, and clipping taken from your paper, explains cause of this note to you personally. I believe you to be a gentleman, and that surely you didn't mean to do me an injustice knowingly. And, if you didn't, you will in your next paper correct the same. When, in your statement referring to the arrival of the new pastor of the M. E. church, you said 'he will occupy two rooms of the parsonage not occupied. The Rev. Mr. Greening while here rented the parsonage to Mrs. Calvin Stamper, and collected the rent until February.' This statement is not true; I rented nothing. Bro. Pike rented the parsonage before he left. Her son paid me one month's rent, $5, and $2.50 of this I gave back to Mrs. Stamper, in front of Taylor Day's store, as she will tell you, if you will only ask her, for repairs in those rooms. I was entitled to it all, every cent, for I had been paying rent on my household goods to the amount of $8.25, and was entitled to all of first quarter's salary, by the statement of both the bishop and of Presiding Elder Oney."

A Faithful Official.

Individually we last week failed to note the fact that our efficient sheriff, A. T. Combs, had received his quietus for the fourth year of his administration. As was remarked when he first offered to make the race, Thresher Combs is too good hearted to hold such an office without financially suffering in the end, and the fact that he had received his fourth quietus prior to Jan. 1, 1902, is proof of the assertion, for it is well known that many tax-payers have not as yet received their quietus of him. To be sure, there are many who will pay him dollar for dollar; indeed, every one who does by his neighbor as he would be done by is sure to do it, if possible. But, alas, some whom he has befriended are likely to betray his bounty by never reimbursing him. He has made a good officer and retires with a record as clear as the noon-day sun. Well may the people of Wolfe county, regardless of party, say to him, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." Unfortunately they can not add—"enter into thy reward;" farther than to show that as ever he has a warm corner in their hearts, and though he may never again hold office, he will have the proud consciousness of knowing that he fulfilled his mission in a manly manner and retains the respect of all. May he live to a green old age and enjoy every hour of life, is our earnest individual wish, and there are others—aye, lots of 'em.

Children Especially Liable.

Burns, bruises and cuts are extremely painful and if neglected often result in blood poisoning. Children are especially liable to such mishaps because not so careful. As a remedy DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. Draws out the fire, stops the pain, soon heals the wound. Beware of counterfeits. Sure cure for piles. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my baby of eczema after two physicians gave her up," writes James Mock, N. Webster, Ind. "The sores were so bad she could not take five dresses a day."

It is interesting to observe that the Bishop of Massachusetts gave Secretary Long his blessing.—Boston Herald.

A Profitable Investment.

"I was troubled for about seven years with my stomach and in bed half my time," says E. Demick, Somerville, Ind. "I spent about $1,000 and never could get anything to help me until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken a few bottles and am entirely well." You don't live by what you eat, but by what you digest and assimilate. If your stomach doesn't digest your food you are really starving. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does the stomach's work by digesting the food. You don't have to diet; eat all you want. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures all stomach troubles.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
THURSDAY, January 9, 1902.

The boom which Hazel Green academy is just now enjoying is not of the spasmodic or mushroom species; but the result of untiring energy upon the part of Prof. Cord, the principal, and therefore substantial and lasting. Not simply by solicitation has he been enabled to do this, but by work—work by which he has been enabled to show that every student who matriculates receives the worth of his money in instruction, and through a discipline demonstrating to patrons that the boys and girls have attained a dignity of self-respect here that was foreign to them before. Once they start in here they feel the importance of an education, and almost instinctively they apply themselves. They have a moral atmosphere, and if disposed to do right are almost sure to be the better for being here. Then, in the matter of board. Nowhere could students be so well cared for so cheap as at Hazel Green academy. Indeed, taken altogether, it is "the cheapest and best school in Eastern Kentucky," and with each succeeding term it grows in grace. Parents will do well to investigate at once and then send their children here.

THE democratic nominees of the caucus on Monday night last at Frankfort are herewith appended. As the general assembly is overwhelmingly of democratic dye, the slate as here outlined will, of course, go through, and here are the lucky ones:

- For Speaker House—Finn.
- For Sergeant-at-Arms House—Longmire.
- For Chief Clerk House—Stone.
- For Assistant Clerk House—Peters.
- For Enrolling Clerk House—Miss Lyons.
- For President Pro Tem Senate—Utley.
- For Chief Clerk Senate—Cromwell.
- For Assistant Clerk Senate—Jones.
- For Sergeant-at-Arms Senate—Swango.
- For Senate Doorkeeper—McWaten.
- For Cloakroom Keeper—Watson.
- For Janitor—Norris.

THREE men, two of them white and the third a negro are on trial at Lexington today for the murder of Jesse N. Hawkins, a prominent merchant of that town, on the night of Dec. 7th. The evidence against the trio is all circumstantial, but the negro has made a partial confession in which he implicates the two white men. However, his confession is looked upon by many as a complete fabrication, and this appears from an apparently well-established fact by both of the white men. A Pinkerton detective is working up the case with the assistance of the local police.

JUDGE SWANGO has captured another position at Frankfort. This time he goes in as sergeant-at-arms of the state senate. If we are not mistaken he held a similar position in the lower house upon one occasion. Anyhow, as a member of the legislature and his experience in other official positions at Frankfort render him eminently qualified for his duties, and his host of friends in and about Hazel Green rejoice that he has landed the place.

THE bare mention of Schley's name before any assemblage of men and women never fails to evoke applause. Even the staid members of the American Historical Association, which recently held its annual convention in Washington, was roused to enthusiasm by the incidental mention of Schley's name by its chairman. There is a meaning in this soft thing that congress will be wise to heed.

TACT wasn't conspicuous in the action of those Spanish war veterans of Washington who asked Admiral Dewey and Gen. Miles to be fellow-guests of Mr. Roosevelt at a banquet. Dewey and Miles might at least have been given a little more time to forget the undesired snubs given them by Roosevelt before asked to meet him in a social way.

Gov. SHAW professes to have the Abe Lincoln faculty of refusing to worry over the bridges to be crossed until he gets to them, but he possesses another faculty that may prove troublesome to a secretary of the treasury—he talks too much.

ACCORDING to some of his friends, Gov. Shaw accepts the treasury portfolio with a mental reservation—he'll be for Roosevelt if Roosevelt's nomination is a certainty; otherwise he'll be for Shaw.

REPUBLICAN congressmen are beginning to apologize for the high salaries paid American officials in the Philippines. It is only a question of time when they will be apologizing for American ownership.

THE anti-trust league caused suits to be brought for the revocation of the charters of several Ohio railroads. Hon. Tom L. Johnson, Mayor of Cleveland, is interested in the prosecution of the suits.

HASN'T Secretary Long worked that I-don't-want-to-retire-under-fire dodge about long enough? He will be under fire—deservedly, too—as long as he remains at the head of the navy department.

"BILLY" MASON has bloomed out as the champion of the fake publishers who object to being denied second-class mail privileges. Better look out, "Billy," you are playing with fire.

IT is understood that the price Secretary Wilson paid to remain in the cabinet was the withdrawal of his opposition to tariff concessions on Cuban sugar and tobacco.

COL. WATTERSON hints that in making a monkey out of Tom Platt Mr. Roosevelt was merely taking the first step toward establishing a political menagerie.

DE WET licks the British often enough to keep John Bull's South African troubles from being forgotten, either by British taxpayers or the rest of the world.

If the Ohio scrap between Foraker and Hanna be the Roosevelt anti-Roosevelt affair many believe it to be it will add to the fun of the democratic spectators.

MR. ROOSEVELT dropped public business during Christmas week, in order that he might devote his entire time to strengthening the Roosevelt machine.

SIX STATES—Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, and Washington—are now in the fight against the big railroad trust.

THE peoples first chance to express an opinion on the Schley case that will count will be at this year's congressional elections.

If Schley can get all those naval birds under oath, in the trial of his suit for libel against Macley's publishers, the feathers will fly.

HANNA is neither fool nor cur. He may not be able to beat Roosevelt, but he'll give him a run for his money.

It cannot be truthfully said that New York is free from open gambling as long as Wall Street continues to "do" the "suckers."

It might be supposed from the titles of its new police officials that New York had been put under military government.

A VISIT TO PIKE COUNTY.

One of Our Citizens Spends the Christmas Holidays Upon His Native Hills.

ROOF, KY., Dec. 25, 1901.
EDITOR HAZEL GREEN HERALD:
As I am a citizen of Wolfe county and a subscriber to your paper I will give you an account of my visit to Pike county, Ky. I visited my relatives, and finally, on Christmas eve and Christmas day, I visited the home of Dr. R. L. Jackson, near which I was raised. We had a pleasant time. Dr. John Jackson and Christmas tricks on the neighbors by awiping a few chickens and having them cooked at the home of Rev. G. W. Sisco, and the invited guests were Misses Nettie Scaff, Dolly Scott, Tinnie Jackson, Mr. Estin Hunt, Mrs. Ollie Jackson and others. The chickens were eaten without manna and without grace, and in the mean time Thos. James went home and his friends, John Jackson and Alvis Scott, swiped an old hen from Mr. James—so old that after 35 hours of cooking the gravy could not be cut with a razor. Master Barney Scott acted the clown, and caused much laughter.

The most notable event was the influence that old East Kentucky moonshine wielded over the good nature of our friend C. C. Scott, whose password was "hoss-fly."

Among the old settlers of this county there are only two seasons of celebration, "hog-killing" and "election," but I say that Christmas is best of all, for I ate the best dinner at the home of R. L. Jackson that I ever ate.

The hills are so high that one has to go to the top and climb a tree before the sun can be seen, and one has to lie with his head down hill and look cross-eyed before he can see the sky on a clear July day. If you doubt this ask R. W. Jackson, who never was known to tell the truth. The name of this village is "Sleepy Hollow" on account of the sleepy appearance of its citizens. Respectfully,
A. J. Scott.

This is a Ground Hog Case.

The proprietor of THE HERALD is anxious to retain every subscriber on his list and would be proud, indeed, if he could double or treble the circulation, but subscriptions must be paid in advance. The postoffice department has so ruled and it is a wise rule. But it was not intended to curtail the circulation of country papers. All over the land are "fake" publications that have no paid circulation beyond the nominal, that send out thousands of papers every week or month. Their advertising patrons pay the bill, and this is the class of publications the department is after. The country paper, however, has to suffer. Now, every friend of the "dear old HERALD" should feel it incumbent to bring in a new subscriber each, and if this be done we'll give you the best country paper in Kentucky and give it to you every week. Friends, go to work and see how much you can do. A little effort will accomplish much.

A Pathetic Little Incident.

A little girl in this town last summer said to the hired girl. "Teely, please dit me a aty." "There are none in the pantry, and I can't go to the garden for one now, Dolly." "You'll be sorry for 'at when I'm in the tole, tole droun." The little one wanted a tomato, which she could not pronounce, and the above conversation resulted in her getting the favorite vegetable. She was only about three years old, and her thoughts of the cold, cold ground were certainly quite pathetic. Only a short time prior to this the little one's father was buried, and recollections of that sad scene doubtless controlled her thoughts.

DEATH EXPECTED.—Mrs. J. J. C. Bach on Monday last was summoned to the bedside of her father, Hardin Hurst of Wolfe county, who was then thought to be dying. He is far advanced in years and has been on a general decline in health for some time.—Jackson Hustler, Jan. 2.

Dr. Center informed us this last Monday that he saw the patient on Tuesday of last week and that he was still alive, but owing to his advanced age, 79 years, there was but small hope of his recovery.

Mr. Hurst died on Sunday and was buried on Monday.

The mail from this place to Campton failed to go yesterday because Uncle Sol Osborn's horse was unable to make the trip. And thus the people of the town and surrounding country, many of whom take daily papers, are deprived of the privilege of reading the news, and maybe important business letters.

Rev. Sebron Nickell will begin a meeting at the Frank Johnson school house tonight, which may continue over Sunday. Revs. Sam Taulbee and John Brooks will also take part in the meeting, and the hope is expressed that much good may be done for the Master's service.

All the newly elected county officials were sworn in Monday and gave bond. A big crowd was in Campton and everybody was sober. One man told us, and he is a close observer, that he did not smell the fumes of liquor upon anybody's breath.

John Murphy has sold his farm on the Murphy fork of Grassy to a man named Dunn. There are 150 acres in the place, and $1,300 is the consideration. Mr. Murphy talks of locating in Illinois, but will not do so before some time in the spring.

Lige Blankenship just swapped horses three times Monday, and is $1.50 ahead in money beside having a bigger horse. But he is trying to figure out whether he is the richer, notwithstanding the $1.50, and the problem is unsolved.

MOTHERHOOD
The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

WINE OF CARDUI
143 Market Street, Memphis, Tenn., April 14, 1901.
In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Thacker's Black-Drainage. I had been married fifteen years and had never given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 21, 1901. The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel as well as any person could feel. Now my home is happy and I never will be without Wine of Cardui in my home again.

THE HERALD.
GREATER WEEKLY

Dr. Center reports the birth of a boy to the wife of E. Creech on Laurel on the 3d inst.

Miss Anna Belle Combs left for her home at Campton on Saturday, accompanied by Mrs. Alice Pieratt.

Robt. McLin, whose illness we reported last week, we are glad to say is now able to be up and about his business.

Miss Lou Dora Dunn, daughter of John Dunn, who lives on Judge Carson's farm on Lacy creek, is quite ill with pneumonia.

Dr. Waldeck and family on Monday moved to the Ova Swango property on the hill, recently vacated by Mr. Swango and wife.

You can pay for THE HERALD in onions, Irish potatoes, spars, ribs, etc., so there is no excuse for ignorance.

Harry Perkins, collector for the Chicago Portrait Co., who now makes his headquarters at Columbus, O., is at home rustication.

Frank Thomas has moved into the residence recently vacated by Taylor Johnson, and the latter has moved back to the Holderby farm.

James Oldfield has sold his farm on Grassy, just below E. F. Cecil, to the latter gentleman, and it was surveyed on Tuesday by Judge Wheeler.

INDIGESTION, resulting from weakness of the stomach, is relieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great stomach tonic and cure for DYSPEPSIA.

Curtis Rose, who is now freight agent for the Red River Valley Railway Co., at McCausey, came up Sunday to spend the day with his father and mother.

Albert Dye arrived in town with a corps of workmen on Sunday from Maytown, and began work on Monday on H. F. Pieratt's new houses on the heights.

Leroy Boggs' school at Consolation closed Tuesday evening last. From what we hear the patrons of that district say he has made them a faithful and efficient teacher.

As a proof that advertising pays we cite the following instances: F. M. Long arranged with us to advertise a mule for sale, and before we got it in type he disposed of the mule.

Dr. Center reports that Sam Haddix of the Stamper branch, near Lee City, who was reported in these columns as being very ill, has improved and is now on the road to recovery.

There were 24 matriculates at the academy on Monday last, which coupled with the 219 announced last week, makes 243 up to date. Is there another school in Eastern Kentucky that can come up to it?

Leroy Boggs has accepted a position with H. F. Pieratt as salesman, and Ed. Oney, whom he succeeds, will remain as collector. Mr. Pieratt has a large number of unsettled accounts which he will thus endeavor to collect.

Sam Taulbee and family have moved into the Pieratt property on the hill, recently vacated by Frank Thomas, and Mrs. Duff, who also had a part of the house, now occupies a part of the Dr. J. M. Kash residence, with J. M. Ingram and wife.

Fred J. Heintz, the manufacturing jeweler of Lexington, has an ad in this paper to which the attention of our readers is most respectfully directed. For seven years Mr. Heintz has been a continuous advertiser in THE HERALD, during which time he has built up a handsome trade from the territory covered by its circulation, and when you deal with him you'll realize the reason why.

More publicity was given to the Cisco-Kash wedding, perhaps, than any similar event that ever transpired in Eastern Kentucky. As will be remembered we printed the invitation in THE HERALD in addition to the regular invitations sent out by the groom, which gave him about 1,000. Then the Cincinnati Enquirer of Jan. 4, 1902, republished the invitation as taken from our paper. As the circulation of that paper is above 100,000 it will be seen that it was made quite public. To be sure the last publication was after the event transpired, but the publicity of it was increased just the same.

At the recent election of officers for Mizpah Lodge, No. 507 F. & A. M., the following is the result: John H. Pieratt, W. M.; Edgar T. Kash, S. W.; John Ward, J. W.; Ambrose M. Nickell, Treas.; John Will Taulbee, Sec'y.; John H. Rose, S. D. and John B. Davis, J. D.; James H. Sebastian, Thos. Taulbee, Stewards; Robt. Nickell, Chap.; Granville Taulbee, Tyler. The lodge meets the first Saturday in each month and there will be work in the third degree at next meeting.

Our readers are requested to read the new ad. of the Hagin Distilling Co., which appears in this issue of our paper, and if in need of wet goods for the inner man send them an order. Liquid joy is what they deal in mostly, but its abuse renders it sometimes anything but joy. For medicine and taken as a beverage there is no harm in the use of pure liquor. It is the abuse of it that causes harm, and the best preventive of that is, when buying buy pure liquor. It will not give that blood-thirsty feeling but make you feel benevolent. Try Hagan when you need goods again.

Since our last paper was issued the examining trial of Claude Day of Maytown, charged with the murder of Felix Bullock at Jackson has been held, and he was admitted to bail in the sum of $2,000. From all we hear there seems to be no evidence against him save that of circumstances. No one saw him fire the fatal shot, and it will be a hard matter to convict him.

"Never Burn a Candle at Both Ends" Don't go on drawing vitality from the blood without doing something to replace it. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives nerve, mental and digestive strength by enriching and vitalizing the blood. Hood's Pills are mild and non-irritating.

It is now Judge Pieratt, if you please, H. F. Pieratt having been sworn in on Monday last as police judge of Hazel Green. He has acceptably filled the position of deputy sheriff for the past four years, and his friends hope he may do as well in his new position.

Dr. Nickell reports the birth of a boy to the wife of Jeff Cruey of Lacy creek, on Saturday.

HOME AND CHILD

Does your horse "feel his oats"? What a difference between the grain-fed and the grass-fed horse! The first strong and full of ginger, the second flabby, weak and tired out before he begins. The feeding makes the difference.

Children are not alike either. One is rosy, bright-eyed, full of life and laughter, another is pale, weak and dull. The feeding again is responsible.

Sickly children need special feeding. They don't "feel their oats". Scott's Emulsion adds just the right richness to their diet. It is like grain to the horse. The child gets new appetite and strong digestion.

Scott's Emulsion is more than food. It is a strong medicine. It rouses up dull children, puts new flesh on thin ones and red blood into pale ones. It makes children grow. Scott's Emulsion makes ordinary food do its duty.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York. 50c and $1. all druggists.

Mrs. Virgie Rose will please accept the thanks of the editor and his better seven-eighths for a fine fat chicken dressed ready for roasting. Indeed it is so large that at first glance we were puzzled to say to what particular part of the poultry family it might belong. But it made a feast for THE HERALD family and one ye gods might have enjoyed. Just such little remembrances as these make us cling to Hazel Green, because there are few places where the people, as a general rule, are so considerate of others' wants.

Dr. Collier, the dentist, has announced that he will be here on or about the 12th inst., to remain a few days, and all who may have work in his line should be ready for him when he comes. He has done some work for the writer, with which we were well pleased, and this is the verdict rendered by all who have had him work for them. Don't forget date of his coming and don't delay seeing him when he does come.

MILLERSBURG, Ky., Jan. 4, 1902. Mr. Cooper:—We left Hazel Green Dec. 23, arrived in Millersburg on the 30th. Have been all this time without THE HERALD; so please send it to us, as we are anxious to hear the home news. We are very well pleased so far. Regards to Mrs. Cooper and all my old friends. I may write a letter for the paper some day. Yours respectfully, MRS. ELLEN SWANGO.

By accepting the position of supervisor, which he was sworn to fulfill the duties, Squire John D. Rose, recently re-elected as magistrate of this district, forfeited the latter office. Under the law the vacancy thus created must be filled by appointment of the county judge, and there is much anxiety as to who the party will be.

The magistrates have bought a farm to keep the poor of the county. It is located in the Rocky Branch about 2 1/2 or 3 miles from Campton, and cost about $1,000. It is a very rough piece of land practically without improvements, and is thought to be a waste of the county money. Judge Steve Tutt sold it to the county.

Billy Schooler, formerly an attaché of THE HERALD, has leased the Morgan County Messenger. In addition he owns the Morehead Advance, is half owner in the Salt Lick Pantograph and holds down a position in the revenue service of the Seventh district. Truly, it has paid Will to be a republican.

THE HERALD takes pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of handsome 1902 calendars from the Combs Lumber Co., Lexington—and it is a magnificent work of art—and from the Winchester Bank. The latter is also a beauty.

Blank School Reports for use of teachers of public schools for sale at this office—100 50 cents; 200 75c; 300 $1.00.

C. B. Parsons, representing the Lyons Medicine Co., Louisville, was in town Monday night and contracted with THE HERALD for some advertising.

D. W. Vest, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Ben Murphy of the Murphy fork for two weeks, returned Monday to his home at Coburn, W. Va.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

SUNNY SIDE.

Miss Eliza Taulbee of Breathitt county enrolled in school Monday.

Born, to the wife of Jeff Cruey one day last week, a fine boy. Papa is awful proud.

Miss Etta Swango of the Public Square was visiting at this place Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Monta and Nora Cruey and Mollie and India Coldiron, all of your town were visiting in this part Sunday.

Mrs. John Evans and daughter, Miss Lula, passed up here Monday en route to Boone May's to spend the day with Mrs. May, who has just returned from Cedar Bluff, Va.

G. W. Cruey gave this place a business call Monday. He says that he is having a coal bank opened up on his farm, and he thinks that it will prove to be a cannal coal.

J. W. Taulbee and wife took dinner with Mrs. E. B. Oney of this place Sunday, and in the afternoon he left for Campton to be there early Monday to be sworn in as superintendent. "So mote it be."

Creed Oney, a stepson of Samuel Patton of Rousseau, Breathitt county, who enrolled in school last week, is boarding at this place. So you see that we don't have to trot back and forth to school by ourselves any longer.

Uncle Rastus Brooks came very near getting their house burned Sunday night while they were all asleep. The mantle caught and burned to the ceiling over head. Mrs. Brooks happened to awake in time to have it extinguished before much damage was done.

Among the many old pupils who have come back to school, we noticed Misses Ella and Maud Millard of Magoffin county, Taylor Shockey of Lee City, Dan Kash of Landaw, Miss Alma Swango of Maytown. Jan. 7. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

STILLWATER SPARKLES. Jeff Chambers paid Holly a visit from Saturday until Sunday.

W. B. Rose is visiting his brother, Jeff Rose, in Morgan county.

A little child of Lee Taylor and wife is somewhat ill at this writing.

J. M. Taylor and son Willie went to Campton on business Monday.

Ye scribe and Robert Rose made a business trip to Torrent last week.

A little child of Boyd Cundiff and wife got choked to death on a bone one day last week.

Rev. W. H. Chambers preached a very interesting sermon Sunday at the old Baptist church.

Bugtown's first wedding went off Dec. 30th, when Miss Lula Swango of this place and G. B. Peck of Lincoln county, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. Powell Rose of Campton officiating. Jan. 7. PRESTO.

TOLIVER TOPICS.

News is scarce in this part of the county.

A. B. Swango of Hazel Green was down taking in meeting at Sandfield Saturday and Sunday.

A. W. McNabb of this place, R. A. Day of Maytown, went to Campton Monday on business.

Miss Etta Swango of Hazel Green passed through this section Sunday evening en route to Maytown.

Doree Ingram and Boon Nickell of Maytown were seen in Toliver Sunday. Guess they were going to see their best girls.

The family of Mr. Noble, who has had small-pox have all got well, and no one else ever taken the disease.

There is a protracted meeting going on at Sandfield school house. May much good be done. Good crowd attending and the best of order maintained. This speaks well of our community.

Rev. J. W. Doan of Bethel gave the Sunday school at Toliver church quite a treat Sunday morning, and also a delightful talk in the evening. May the Sunday school be carried on in the way that is right, and at last when it may come to a close, some one may say, I have learned something that I shall never depart from.

Jan. 7. SUNSHINE.

We claim to be the Lowest Priced Whiskey House. We really sell whiskey as low as $1.10 per gallon, and mind you: distilled whiskey—not a decoction of chemicals—but of course it is new and under proof.

Our "Mountain Dew" 5 year old whiskey is a liquid joy! It is actually produced by honest Tar Heels in the Mountain Section of N. C., by the old time hand process. Every drop is boiled over open furnace wood fires, in old style copper stills, in exactly the same way as distilled by our grandfathers a century ago. First rate whiskey is sold at $5 and $6 per gallon, but is not any better than "Mountain Dew." It is the best in the world and must please every customer or we will buy it back for Gold—and the Peoples National Bank of Winston, N. C., will tell you our guarantee is good. To more fully introduce "Mountain Dew," we offer either three or five gallons (in plain sealed box), at the special price of $1.35 per gallon, cash with order. Positively no larger amount shipped. Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers. They filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pain, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail.

Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

MY DARLINGS TREASURES.

BY SAM WILSON.

They're only my darling's treasures,
A cluster of light hair,
A little tinkle of her face,
And ring she used to wear.
How often I have gazed on them,
And how the tears would flow
To think she lies beneath the sod—
'Twas hard to let her go.

They're only my darling's treasures
She prized them, O, so dear,
And when I linger near them
I feel her presence near.
Again I see those witching eyes
While music from her tongue
Seems echoing through my lonely home:
Sweet songs she's often sung.

Ah! none can feel save those who lose
The jewel of their home,
Or none can feel the happy thrill
These treasures give alone;
And now I lay these gems away,
Sweet blossoms that shall twine
Around the altar of my heart
On memory's holiest shrine.

Child Worth Millions.

"My child is worth a million to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird of Harburg, Pa., "yet I would have lost her by croup had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." One Minute Cough Cure is sure cure for coughs, croup and throat and lung troubles. An absolutely safe cough cure which acts immediately. The youngest child can take it with entire safety. The little ones like the taste and remember how often it helped them. Every family should have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure handy. At this season especially it may be needed suddenly.

In contemplating their navy the American people will get the most satisfaction by keeping the admiral well in mind.—Washington Post.

She Wants it Published.

Gooch's Mexican Syrup has given perfect satisfaction in my family and I want to recommend it to everyone as the best remedy for coughs, colds, and all lung troubles. A young lady in my employ, who had been forced to quit work and who had been given up to die by her friends with consumption, has by the use of Gooch's Mexican Syrup been restored to health, and is now at work earning her living and enjoying good health. She wants me to publish this as it may be the means of saving the life of some other consumptive.

Food Changed to Poison.

Putrefying food in the intestines produces effects like those of arsenic, but Dr. King's New Life Pills expel the poison from clogged bowels, gently, easily but surely, curing constipation, biliousness, sick headache, fevers, all liver, kidney and bowel troubles. Only 25 cts., at J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, or S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, drug stores.

As we understand Mr. Lawson, his reputation as a Napoleon of finance has not reached a St. Helena stage. It is simply having an Elba of a time.—Washington Times.

Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney remedy. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite. Try it. Only 50 cts. Guaranteed. For sale by J. T. Day, Hazel Green, or S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, druggists.

Saw Death Near.

"It often made my heart ache," writes L. C. Overstreet, of Elgin, Tenn., "to hear my wife cough until it seemed her weak and sore lungs would collapse. Good doctors said she was so far gone with consumption that no medicine or earthly help could save her, but a friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery and persistent use of this excellent medicine saved her life." It's absolutely guaranteed for coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung diseases. 50 cents and $1.00 at J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, and S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, drug stores. ASTHMA CURE FREE

Asthmalene Brings Instant Relief and Permanent Cure in All Cases.

SENT ABSOLUTELY FREE ON RECEIPT OF POSTAL. WRITE YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS PLAINLY.

CHAINED FOR TEN YEARS

There is nothing like ASTHMALENE. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

The Rev. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for 10 years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle."

Rev. Dr. Morris Wechsler, Rabbi of the Cong. B'nai Israel, New York, January 3, 1901.

Dr. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO. Gentlemen: Your Asthmalene is an excellent remedy for Asthma and Hay Fever, and its composition alleviates all troubles which combine with Asthma. Its success is astonishing and wonderful.

After having it carefully analyzed, we can state that Asthmalene contains no opium, morphine, chloroform or ether. Very truly yours, REV. DR. MORRIS WECHSLER.

AVON SPRINGS, N. Y., February 1, 1901.

Dr. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO.

Gentlemen: I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene, for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I have been forced to see your sign upon your windows on 130th street, New York, I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle the Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can conscientiously recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease. Yours respectfully, O. D. PHELPS, M. D.

February 5, 1901. Gentlemen: I was troubled with Asthma for 22 years. I have tried numerous remedies, but they have all failed. I ran across your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have since purchased your full-size bottle, and I am ever grateful. I have family of four children, and for six years was unable to work. I am now in the best of health and am doing business every day. This testimony you can make such use of as you see fit. S. RAPHAEL, Home address, 255 Livingston street, 67 East 129th street, New York City.

State College of Kentucky.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State) College of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, Horticultural, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post graduate courses of study are also provided, leading each to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers more than thirty professors and instructors. County Appointees receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and lights, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses. The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern. The last Legislature appropriated $20,000 for a college home for young women, and a drill hall and gymnasium has been provided for men. Military tactics and science are fully provided for and required by Congress. Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college to supply. Last year the matriculation list was 620. For catalogue, method of obtaining appointments, information regarding courses of study and terms of admission, apply to JAMES K. PATTERSON, Ph. D., LL. D., President, or to Prof. D. C. ABOUT THE MONTHLY WORLD.

The Monthly World is a 32-page Magazine with colored cover. It is copiously illustrated with pen drawings and half-tone reproductions of photographs. The illustrations are the result of the best artistic skill, aided by all the latest printing press appliances, making a magazine unrivaled in the quality of its contents and the beauty of its appearance.

Each issue contains stories of romance, love, adventure, travel; stories of fiction and fact; stories of things quaint and curious, gathered together from all over the world; the results of scientific research, and interesting editorial reviews. It numbers among its contributors the leading literary men and women of the day. Its comic pages will present the work of famous comic artists. There will be funny paragraphs and pictures.

A feature each month will be the large first page portrait of the most famous man or woman of the moment in the public eye.

In collecting and preparing for publication the literary matter and art subjects for the Monthly World no expense is spared. It is one of the most attractive publications issued from the great city of New York. It furnishes high-class and widely varied entertainment to many thousand readers throughout North America.

Subscription 50 Cents a Year. But FREE to every new subscriber and all old subscribers who renew for THE HERALD before September 1, 1901. You get the value of $1.50 for only $1.00.

READ THE TESTIMONY OF TWO WELL KNOWN CITIZENS OF WOLFE.

Mr. Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky.: I purchased some of the Vitae-Ore of you in the latter part of March, and after taking about a half-pint of the Vitae-Ore Elixir my nerves were as steady as when I was 16 years of age, and I am now past 75. For more than a year I had been trying all the patent medicines and nostrums I could hear of to build myself up, but nothing did me any good until I used Vitae-Ore, which my wife brought me from your house. After using it a week I went out and did three days' as hard work as I have done in 25 years, and I was not more fatigued than I was 25 years ago over the same work.

It is the greatest medicine in the world, and I want everybody in the mountains to know what it did for me so they may try it. Hoping every one who has that tired feeling incident to old age will buy Vitae-Ore of you and give it a fair trial, I remain, thankfully yours for putting me on to this remedy.

JAMES LACY.

I can vouch for every word Mr. Lacy says in the above. I am his wife and bought the medicine of Mr. Cooper for him, though I did not have much faith in it, because we had tried so many things that did no good. I have also used Vitae-Ore, and am stronger and in better health than for years, which I attribute to its use.
